

Konrad Adenauer Foundation USA, Henry Luce Foundation, CNA, Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA
Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University Center for Northeast Asian Policy Studies, Brookings Institution

present

Myanmar/Burma: Outside Interests, Inside Challenges
30 October 2009
9:00 am – 12:15 pm SAIS Kenney Auditorium
1740 Massachusetts Avenue NW,
Washington, DC

An international forum that looks at Myanmar/Burma in the light of recent developments internally and externally. It will focus on alternative approaches to promoting political development and economic growth that might be more successful than either the engagement or the sanctions emphasized during the past 20 years.

- 9:00am – 9:15am Welcoming Remarks
--Dr. William Wise, Associate Director of Southeast Asia Studies
Johns Hopkins University-SAIS
- 9:15am – 10:15am Panel I: Pursuing a Smart U.S. Policy
Moderator: Priscilla Clapp
Former U.S. Charge/Yangon
Panelists:
--Mr. Scot Marciel, Deputy Assistant Secretary
U.S. Department of State
--Dr. Khin Zaw Win, NGO leader, Yangon
--Dr. Andrew Selth, Research Fellow,
Griffith University
- 10:15am – 11:15am Panel II: Strategic Pressure from ASEAN, China and India
Moderator: Dr. Jurgen Haacke
London School of Economics
Panelists:
--Dr. Zhai Kun, CICIR, Beijing
--Brig. Gurmeet Kanwal, CLAWS, New Delhi*
- 11:15am – 12:15pm Panel III: The Economic Dimension
Moderator: Dr. David Dapice
Harvard Kennedy School
Panelists:
--Mr. Toshihiro Kudo, IDE, Chiba
--Dr. Tin Maung Maung Than, ISEAS, Singapore*
--Dr. GUO Xiaolin, ISDP, Stockholm*

* = invited

RSVP to pguevara@jhu.edu by Wednesday, October 28th

