Can the DPJ Revive Japan's Economy?

A Luncheon with Richard Katz

Tuesday, October 27, 2009
Noon – 2:00pm
$25/person

Capital Hilton
1001 16th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036

What changes will the new DPJ Government bring to Japan's economic policies, and how do its views on Japanese growth and economic equity differ from the past five decades of LDP rule? What are the implications for the United States and our trade and investment ties?

Most American commentary on the new Japanese Government has focused on the DPJ's views on foreign policy and defense issues. Join us at noon on Tuesday, October 27 at the Capital Hilton Hotel as Richard Katz, the Editor in Chief of the Oriental Economist (www.orientaleconomist.com) and one of America's leading economic specialists on Japan, addresses the economic and business impact of the DPJ victory. Mr. Katz is the author of Japanese Phoenix: The Long Road to Economic Revival (2002) and Japan, the System That Soured : The Rise and Fall of the Japanese Economic Miracle (1998).

The luncheon is co-sponsored by the Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA.
